Course Overview

This section gives you an introduction to what you will be learning in this course, plus course outcomes, career opportunities, and student support.

Introduction

If you would like to expand your make-up skills and explore the world of make-up artistry, this nationally recognised and comprehensive course can help.

You will learn the skills and knowledge you need to perform a make-up service designed in response to facial analysis and a client brief. Demonstrations and hands-on guidance will cover basic make-up principles, as well as day, evening, glamour, bridal and special occasion make-up.

What will I Learn?

- preparing the client
- cleansing the face
- analysing the face and designing a make-up plan
- selecting products and equipment
- applying make-up
- applying false eyelashes
- advising on further product use
- basic make-up principles
- facial analysis and designing make-up plans
- preparing the client
- day, evening, glamour, bridal and special occasion make-up.

Course Outcomes and Career Opportunities

On successful completion, you will receive a Statement of Attainment for this course.

Course Requirements

This section gives you an overview of entry requirements, course units and electives, skills recognition, and assessment criteria.

For this course, you will need to:

- provide photo ID to the trainer on the first day of the course
- bring a pen and paper
- wear fully covered shoes and casual clothing
- organise a model who is suitable for make-up artistry – the trainer will advise you of the dates your model is required.

Units offered

Core Units

Unit Code	Unit Name	Unit Hours	Unit Consumables
SHBBMUP009	Design and apply make-up	45	$336.07

Assessment

This course involves accredited units. You will be required to complete assessment tasks to demonstrate your underpinning knowledge, skills and attributes to meet the course outcomes. A combination of written, oral and practical assessment strategies will be used in either a classroom, online or workplace environment.

Where units require demonstration of skills in a workplace environment, you will have the opportunity to do this either in your own workplace (where appropriate), through a practical placement, or by using one of the Institute's simulated workshops/classrooms. Detailed information about the types, conduct and dates of assessments will be provided in advance. You will also be provided with information about the opportunity for reassessment and appeal.

After booking

Once you have booked your place in a short course, you will receive an email confirming the date, time and location of the course, and instructions on the next steps of your enrolment process. A tax invoice/receipt is automatically emailed to you at the time of purchase.

If you don't receive this email within a day of booking, check your junk mail or contact short.courses@swtafe.edu.au.

Complete a Pre-Training Review

You will receive an email to complete a Pre-Training Review online. This evaluation helps us ensure you receive any necessary support to achieve a successful outcome for your course. Failure to complete will incur a $20 administration fee for a booking cancellation or transfer.

Create or provide a Unique Student Identifier (USI)

A USI is a nationally recognised reference number that provides an online record of your training qualifications gained in Australia. Create your USI online, or already have a USI but can't remember it? Find your USI online.

Skills recognition

If you have experience or prior qualifications, you may be eligible to apply for recognition of prior learning and gain credits. You will be asked to provide any relevant Statement of Attainment to support identified credits.
